Guard Card Information

Proof of Registration

Once the Bureau issues your security guard registration, you may work with a hardcopy printout of the approved registration from the Department of Consumer Affairs License Search at http://search.dca.ca.gov, along with a valid picture ID, while waiting for the registration card to arrive by mail.

Required Training

A security guard registrant must complete the training below. Retain your training certificates of completion as proof of completing the required training.

Initial training: As a condition of the first renewal, complete 32 hours of security guard skills training within six months of initial registration:

- Module B: At least 16 hours within 30 days of registration.
- Module C: An additional 16 hours, for a total of 32 hours, within six months of registration.

Annual training: Complete 8 hours of security guard skills training annually (Module D).

Minimum Age

Guard Card: 18 years or older
Firearm Permit: 21 years or older

Firearm Permit Information

Initial Application

- Be at least 21 years old.
- Complete the BSIS Firearm Assessment with a PSI Exams facility.
- Be a licensed or registered security guard with BSIS.
- Not be prohibited from owning or possessing any firearm under state or federal law.
- Be a United States citizen or have permanent legal immigration status.
- Complete a Live Scan through DOJ and FBI.

Renewal Application

Range qualification: Complete four range qualifications to renew a firearms permit.

Two-hour training course: Complete the training course on use of force and de-escalation of the use of force.

Written firearms examination: Pass the written Firearms Examination in the BSIS Firearms Training Manual with a score of 86% or greater.

The four range qualifications must be submitted at the time of renewal.
